

Fireside Chat

with Commissioner Marta Miranda-Straub

Join Commissioner of the Department for Community Based Services (DCBS), Marta Miranda-Straub, as she holds a fireside chat with partners from throughout the state. Following up on a great conversation with partners from the Kids Are Worth It!® Conference, she is back by popular demand for Child Abuse Prevention Month! The fireside chat will provide an informal setting to learn more about the Commissioner's goals and priorities for DCBS, centering around the five pillars on which she is grounding the department. The Commissioner wants to hear from you too, so be prepared to give a "shout-out" to your agency. This fireside chat is a perfect way to ensure you stay informed of current and future DCBS priorities.
